STATEMENT OF CASE.

The claim in the above-entitled case for supplies or stores alleged to have been taken by or furnished to the military forces of the United States, for their use during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, was transmitted to the court by the Committee on War Claims of the House of Representatives on the 24th day of March, 1892.

On a preliminary inquiry, the court, on the 26th day of February, 1894, found that the person alleged to have furnished the supplies or stores, or from whom they were alleged to have been taken, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout said war.

The case was brought to a hearing on its merits on the 12th day of December, 1901.

Gilbert Moyers and Ida N. Moyers appeared for claimant, and the Attorney-General, by George H. Walker, esq., his assistant and under his direction, appeared for the defense and protection of the interests of the United States.

The claimant in his petition makes the following allegation:

That he is a citizen of the United States, residing in Shenandoah County, State of Virginia, where he resided during the late war of the rebellion; that at different times during said period the United States forces, by proper authority, took from him quartermaster stores and commissary supplies of the value of $125 and appropriated the same to the use of the United States Army, as follows:

1 horse, 4 years old..... $125. 00

The court, upon the evidence and after considering the briefs and arguments of counsel on both sides, makes the following

FINDING OF FACT.

There was taken from the claimant in Shenandoah County, State of Virginia, during the war of the rebellion, by the military forces of the United States, for the use of the Army, property as above described which at the time and place of taking was reasonably worth the sum of one hundred and fifteen dollars ($115).

It does not appear that payment has been made therefor.
